

AP World History Fall Exam Review

Neolithic Revolution:

- Time period
- Impact on society, politics, and economy

Ancient River Valley Civilization:

- Five Characteristics of a Civilization and examples stemming from the ancient civilizations
- Compare and Contrast the various civilizations technology, governmental systems, city planning, economy, religious beliefs, and social structures
- Mesopotamia, Egypt, Indus River Valley, Huang He River Valley

Classical Civilizations:

- Greece, Rome, Persia, India, China
- P.E.R.S.I.A.N. Chart
- Compare the technology, governmental systems, city planning, economy, religious beliefs, the Fall of the Empires, social structures
- major events, influential people

Post-Classical Civilizations:

- Western Europe
- Byzantine Empire
- Islamic Empires
- Chinese Dynasties
- SE Asia
- Mesoamerica
- Mongol
- technology, governmental systems, city planning, economy, religious beliefs, major events, influential people and social structures – overall impact and comparison

Renaissance

- Causes of the Renaissance
- Invention that spread ideas
- Impact of the Renaissance: Art, Politics, Society
 - How does the art reflect the changing economy and society?

Major Religions & Philosophies: Basic Beliefs, place of origin, time of origin, and how the religion spread

- | | |
|------------------|----------------|
| • Buddhism | • Islam |
| • Christianity | • Daoism |
| • Hinduism | • Confucianism |
| • Judaism | • Legalism |
| • Zoroastrianism | • Shintoism |

Skills: Defined by College Board AP World History Course and Exam Description

- Analyzing primary and secondary sources
- Compare and Contextualization
- Chronological Reasoning (cause and effect)
- Synthesis