

Unit One: Neolithic Revolution & Ancient River Valley Civilizations
Unit One Overview

Test:

Part One: Vocabulary

Create a note card for each vocabulary word with 2 brief points to describe the person/place/term. These cards will be used for various activities.

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. Neolithic Revolution | 12. Judaism |
| 2. Archeology | 13. Hinduism |
| 3. Anthropology | 14. Code of Hammurabi |
| 4. Nomadic | 15. Cuneiform |
| 5. Domestication | 16. Hieroglyphs |
| 6. Pastoralism | 17. Polytheistic |
| 7. Mesopotamia | 18. Theocracy |
| 8. Egypt | 19. Ziggurats |
| 9. Mohenjo-Daro and Harappa | 20. Sumerians |
| 10. Shang Dynasty | 21. Monarchy |
| 11. Zoroastrianism | 22. Monotheistic |

Part Two: Short Answer Questions

Provide a short answer to each question posed.

1. What was the Neolithic Revolution? Explain how this influenced the creation of civilizations.
2. After analyzing the Code of Hammurabi, determine to what degree the Code was effective and fair in its purpose. Site evidence to support your answer. How could the law have been improved?
3. Identify one way in which Egyptian and Huang He civilizations were similar and one way they were different. Determine which civilization was more advanced; support your answer.
4. In a scale of 1-5, rate the importance of the city design used in the Indus River Valley. Explain your answer.
5. What is the major characteristic of Judaism? Explain how Judaism differs from previous religions.
6. How would you prove the statement, "Zoroastrianism greatly impacted the ideas of religions/religious beliefs in the Ancient World."
7. How have the cultures and technological accomplishments of Ancient River Valley Civilizations influenced modern society? Use evidence to support your answer.
8. Ancient how did it influence modern law, altered and remained the same?